

Hurrah For The United States

*To honor the Bicentennial Celebration of Independence for the United States of America
July, 1976*

Words and Music by Hester Lorenz French

This is still the Land of the Free the Home of the Brave The Oh, yes, for two hun-dred years there's been a U S A Star - Spang-led Ban - ner o'er us still does wave. For two hun-dred years we've Grow-ing to the might - y na - tion of to - day. From thir - teen to fif - ty Our kept our leg - a - cy of broth - er - hood and hope, and lib - er - ty.

coun - try now has grown; The fin - est land the world has ev - er known.

CHORUS

Hur - rah for the U - nit - ed States The land of the brave and the

Hurrah For The United States

free. Hur - rah for the U - nit - ed States

Guard - i - an of lib - er - ty. From o - cean to o - cean she reigns With the red, white, and blue flag a - bove. Hur -

BOYS:

rah, Hur - rah, Hur - rah

GIRLS:

BOTH:

Hur - rah, Hur - rah, Hur - rah, Hur -

Red.

rah for the land that we love.